Made for Stewardship

Since Creation, God entrusted humanity with the oversight and care of all His works here on Earth. Genesis 2:15 tells us so: "The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it." The Word tells us that we were made with a specific purpose – to care for God's creation. Made in His image, with all the love and care that only our God could apply, each of us occupies a place and a time which is unique. Jesus tells us in Matthew 10: 29-31 that the Father knows us intimately and prizes each of us.

God has entrusted each of us with basic gifts - time, talent, and treasure – and we must discern how to best apportion each toward glorifying God as we make our way through each day. One way to navigate those waters is to begin each day asking for His help to make the most of the opportunities that present themselves, and to close each day thanking Him for those we've achieved even as we apologize for those we've missed. Each day is another opportunity to care for and put to best use those gifts which we've been loaned for our lives here on earth as we care for creation and for one another.

Clearly, we all are made for stewardship!
