Benevolent Fund Continues to Bless

Last week Karianna Jinguji was in Houston, TX, for additional tests for her ongoing cancer. We provided lodging for Karianna and Kristen while they were in Houston for the week through our Benevolent Fund. If you would like to help with this and other Benevolent Fund expenses, please consider making a donation. Simply note that your gift is for the "Benevolent Fund." Thank you for being a blessing through this ministry!

YOU MAY HAVE NOTICED some differences with the organ, visually and tonally. Through the combined efforts of the Board of Properties, staff members, and musicians, the wooden grill work has been removed and the expression shades (the wooden louvers) can now fully open, allowing more sound to speak into the sanctuary. The various organ sounds can be heard with more clarity and expression. There will be a little adjusting in the next few weeks, and we appreciate your patience.
